Foreword

Our dreams are our plans for the future. All that is accomplished must first be conceived in dreams. Reality is simply a dream made concrete.

We are facing the world with our dreams for, in our time, dreams are more necessary than ever before.

This book is a record of the dreams of 1982. We hope we have captured the essence of the dreams of this year within these pages.

Dee Ann Attebury

Jon Mark Fulton

Dreams in their development have breath,
And tears, and tortures, and the touch of joy;
They leave a weight upon our waking thoughts;
They take a weight from off our waking toil;
They do divide our being; they become
A portion of ourselves as of our time,
And look like heralds of eternity.

School-Day Emotions Run The Gamut

6

Darren Knox likes school. "Can't you see I'm smiling?" he seems to be saying.

Robert Brantley faces everything with a smile.

Ryn Dunn and Billy Nunn like school too. They really do. But, it is sixth period, and no one looks his best by then.

... Moods range from hilarity to utter despair, and vibrant energy can turn to total exhaustion by day's end.

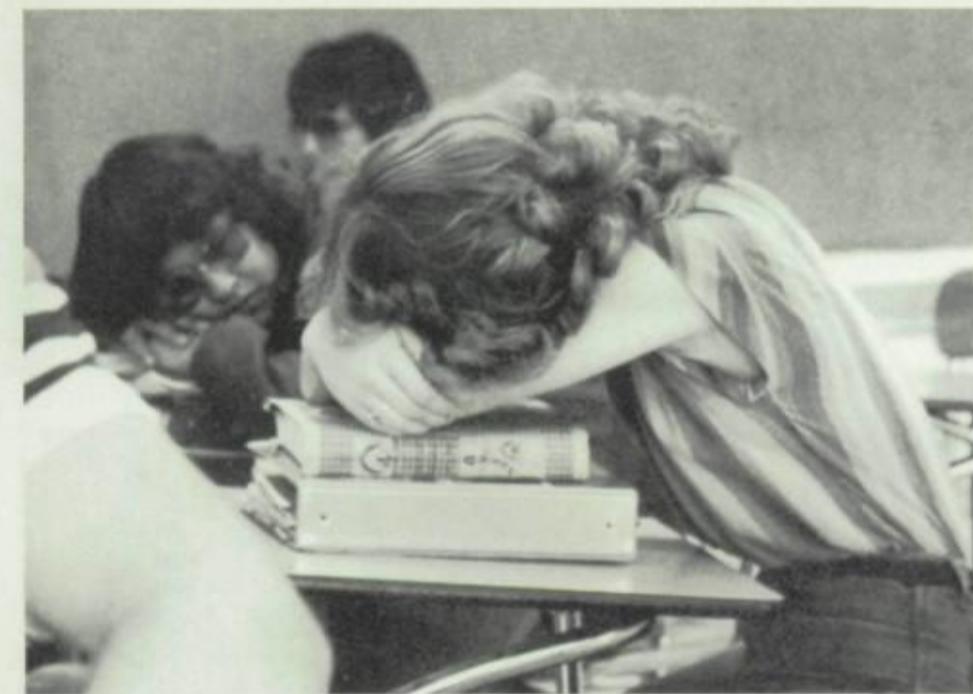

Carrie Smyers and Ruben Garcia look as though they do not enjoy school at all. Actually they are performing in a Drama Club activity.

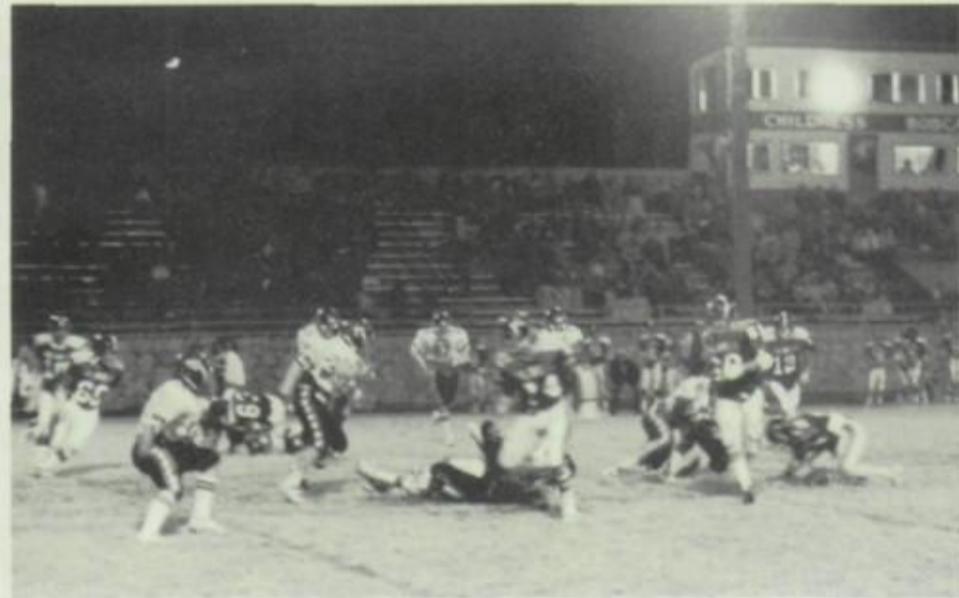

Darvin Stephens looks as though he is so desperate that he is planning to end any school pressures by taking a drastic step.

Tammy Lloyd collapses for a few moments before the bell rings.

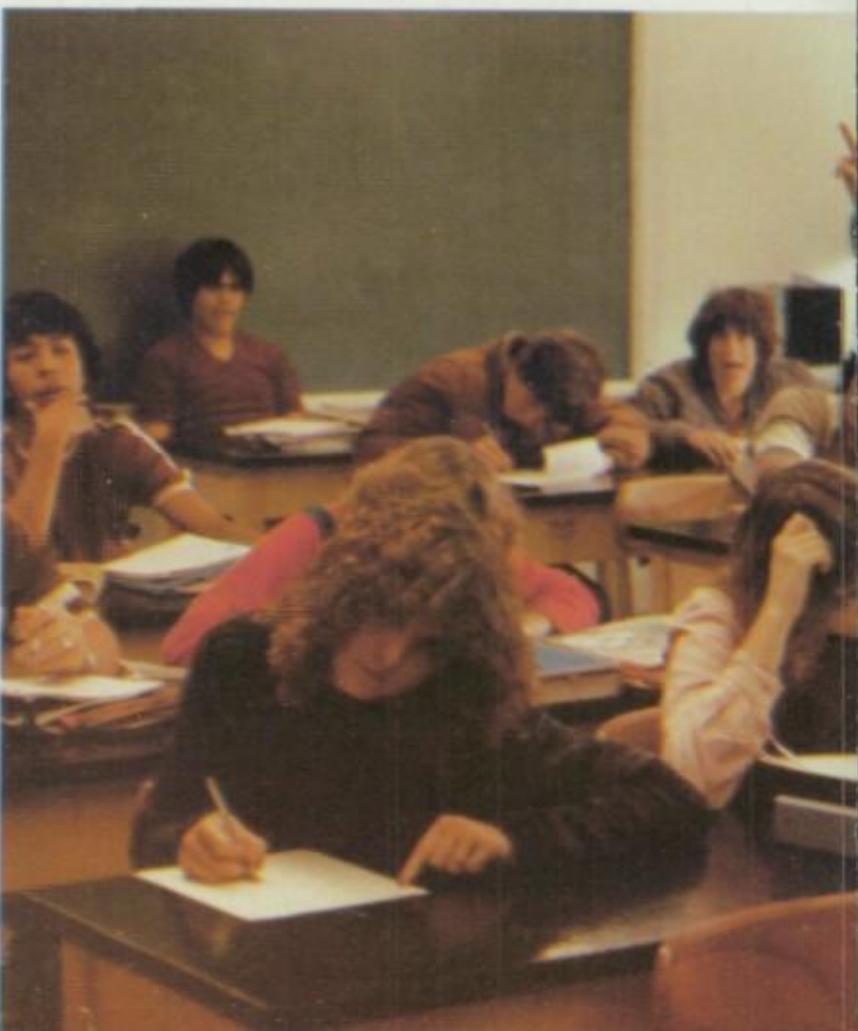

Mark Riddell passes along the latest news.

Lopes Lead Colorful Lives

"Stick 'em up, Patsy," says Agent 001, otherwise known as Cindy Turner.

The Lopes' expressions indicate they mean business against tonight's opponents.

Freshmen chat amiably before the assembly begins.

Ending the season on a positive note, the Lopes approach the Childress team to shake hands.

Vicki Perkins checks her mum in the senior section of the hall during Homecoming week.

Lope Life Includes Many Facets

Robert, why are you looking at Billy's paper?

Mandy Thompson and Fran Salitros per their ferocious dragon, an entry in the Homecoming car decorating contest.

Randy Houston relaxes in the sun while the photographer sets up.

Susan Stone elicits crowd support for tonight's game.

Mike Givens and Danny Richerson make use of their musical talents in band.

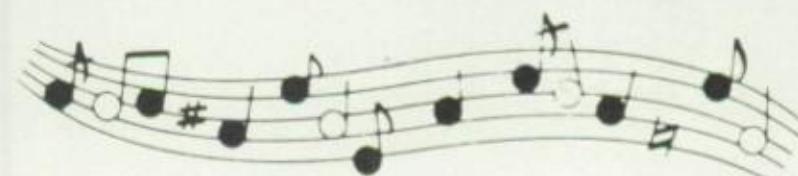

Homecoming participants await the final results.

Band Power

Unabashed Participation Enhances All Aspects Of Life

Ricky Ortiz creates a masterpiece in art class.

Are they really twirlers? Junior football boys experience the thrills of being a twirler for a day.

"Did we do all this?" ask students after the Homecoming car bash.

"Hats Off To The Lopes Day" finds Kellye DuBose's arms full of Student Council business.

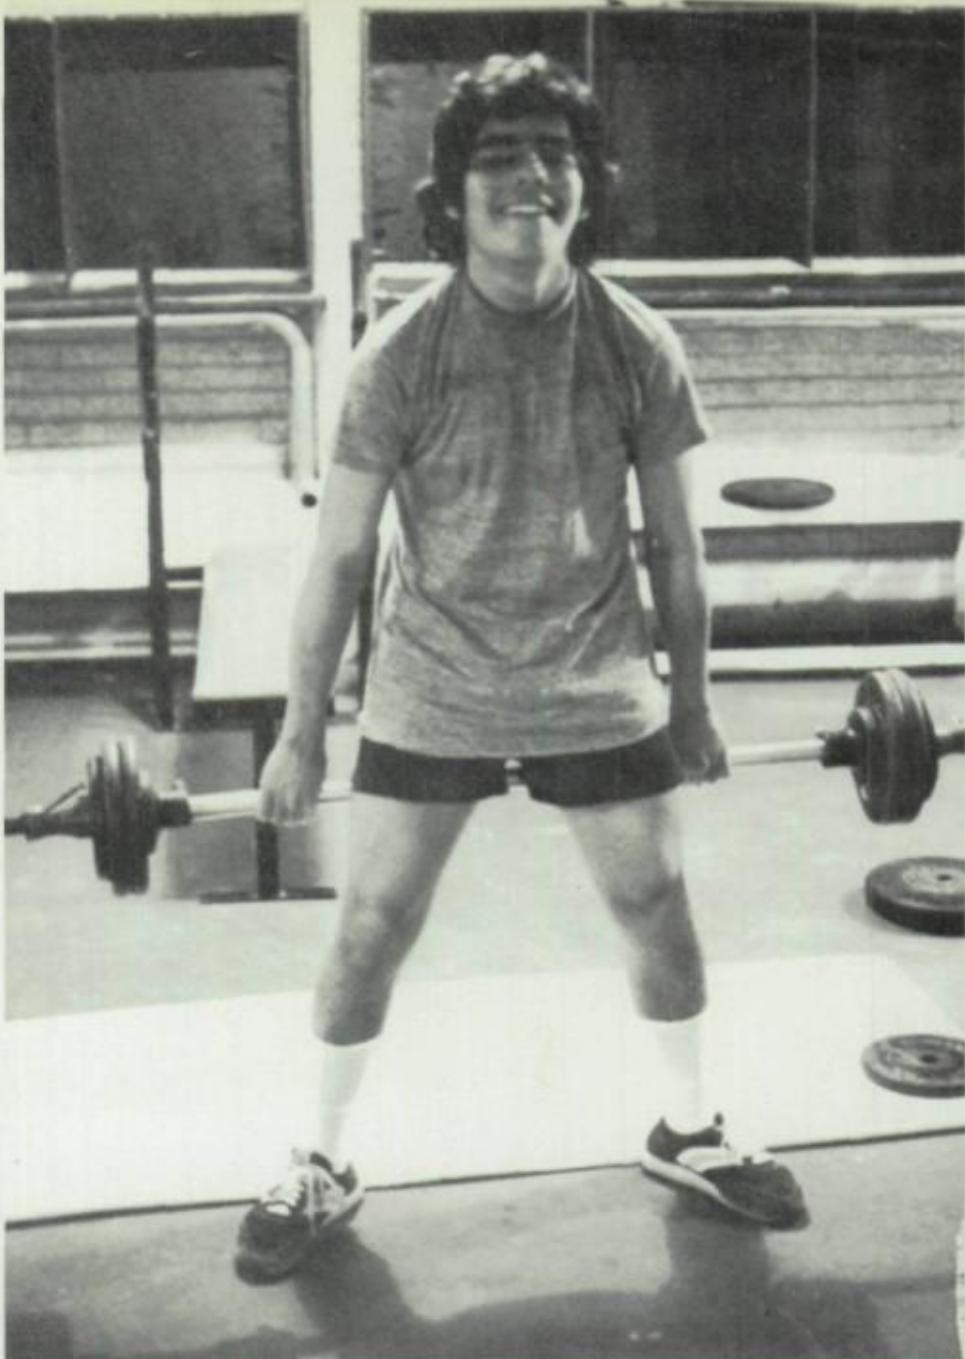

"You're real cut, girls, but you won't win any beauty contests this day." Freshman FFA Greenhands have a new look on initiation day.

Winter
Nutcracker Suite

Another Day In The Land Of The Lopes

"Sure, I can handle it. I'm strong!" Jimmy Castilleja makes it look easy.

Young spectators ring in another Antelope victory.

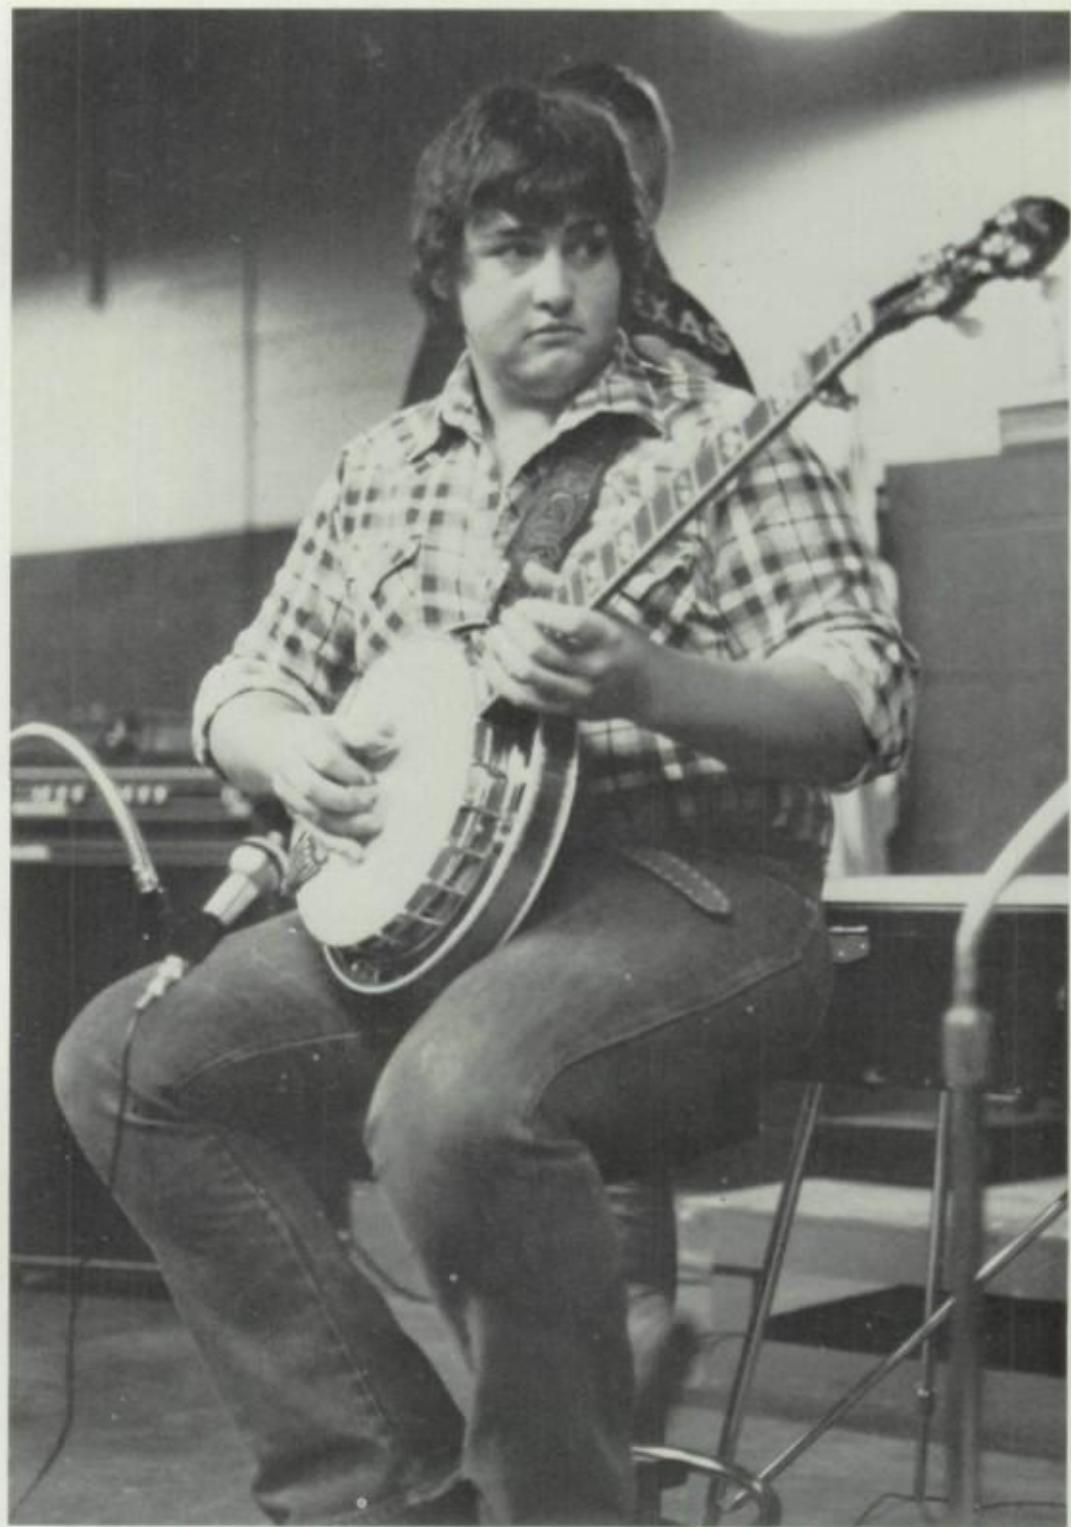

"If he can handle it, so can I!"

"Go away, Jon Mark. You're no fun today."

Junior High Band members enjoy the pep rally.
"Don't you dare snap that shutter, Jon Mark," warns Tina Covey.
"These computers drive me crazy!" Kelly Thompson learns to become a part of the computer age.

Lopes Work, Dream, Play

Matt Kelly enjoys the FFA wildlife barbecue.
Troy Wells appears to hear a sour note.
Hatching a conspiracy of some sort, Donna Burgess casts a watchful over her shoulder.
Holly Murray and Allyson Aldridge snuggle for warmth at a football game.
Cold band members, Lisa Marez, Josie Villanueva, and Cristy Ortiz, huddle in the stands.
"A penny for your thoughts." Susan Stone and Darren Knox do some deep thinking.
Barry Tilley catches up on a backlog of homework.
Ted Beard concentrates on English.
"How does this sound?" Melissa Hogstrom plays a recorder for her disinterested audience, Melissa Thompson.
Lost in thought, Dee Ann Attebury is caught on film.

Santa's annual visit to elementary is always eagerly anticipated by excited youngsters. Not taking any chance of being left out, Tina Covey and Jane Sanderson speak to Santa too. Randal Stillwell emcees the high school Christmas program. A Christmas tree provides a seasonal backdrop for a faculty get-together. Fourth grade students serenade with Christmas elementary carols in the A.C.

The basketball girls take a little time off for relaxation. Snow dusts the heads of Chuck Thompson and Manuel Ponce. The computer craze continues as Shannon Pettit, Larry Perkins, and Stevie Barrera give their total attention to the screen. Patsy Davis eyes a recalcitrant pen. A science experiment captures Mendy Tennell's attention.

A Lifetime Of Memories Is Made Of Many Small Moments

Mrs. Marie Adkisson opens a most unusual cake mix box and finds her birthday gift from faculty members.

Seniors eat together in the CVAE-Homemaking Lab.

"Wanta' see my knee?" Beth Scott gives the photographer a hard time.

The basketball girls enjoy clowning around.

Grading papers is a continual process for math teacher, Martin Kennedy.

The Routine and The Unusual
Combine To Produce Everyday Life

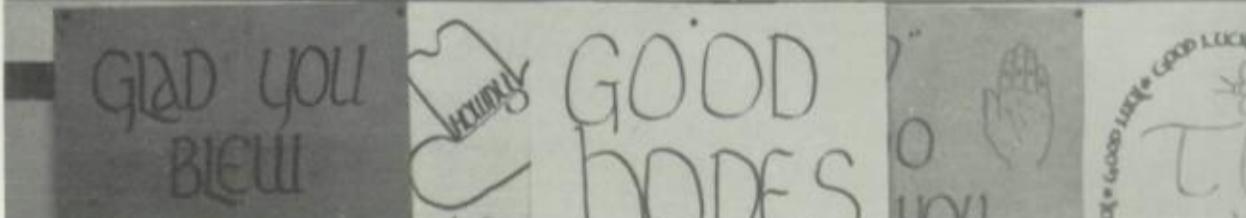

"Hi! Wanna buy a coke?" Bandsman Ruben Garcia works in the concession stand at the Abernathy Track Meet.
Kristi Godwin and Mr. Floyd Galloway help keep track of the basketball team.
Jody Green hams it up at the elementary tasting bee.
Kenneth Moss and Stacy Mills repair an engine in power mechanics class.
Dee Ann Attebury and her car arrive in the band parking lot.

UIL Team Wins District And Regional

District scoreboard reflects Abernathy's victory.
 Triumphant team poses in front of scoreboard.
 UIL director Bailey Marshall awards Barry Tilley his third-place State medal.
 State competitors and sponsors take time for a picture in Austin before returning home.
 Regional competitors pose after a rewarding day at Texas Tech.

Mr. Gid
Adkisson
Named
Superintendent
April 1

On learning that their new boss was a Texas A&M graduate, secretaries in the administration building decorated his office Aggie-Style. They included such amenities as a can of dead weeds; a rustic bench to replace the usual chair; large, slightly-used metal trash cans and crates; and a custom-made "HEAD BOSS" mailbox. As an added touch, the secretaries included a Big Chief notepad and an Aggie pencil with erasers at both ends.

Seniors Make The Most Of Their Last Year

Eighth Grade Graduation Marks End Of Junior High Years

Patrick Lewis waits for his turn to receive his diploma while relatives and friends of graduates prepare to take pictures of the memorable occasion.

A serious Bruce Lloyd approaches the moment of receiving his eighth grade diploma as Julie Waits watches the line and awaits her time.

Principal Frank Bartlett, Board President Richard Howard, Phil Vandygriff, and Tony Rodriguez watch the rest of the eighth grade march into the auditorium.

Tony Rodriguez, valedictorian, Phil Vandygriff, salutatorian, and Donna Colbert, historian, give their honor graduate speeches.

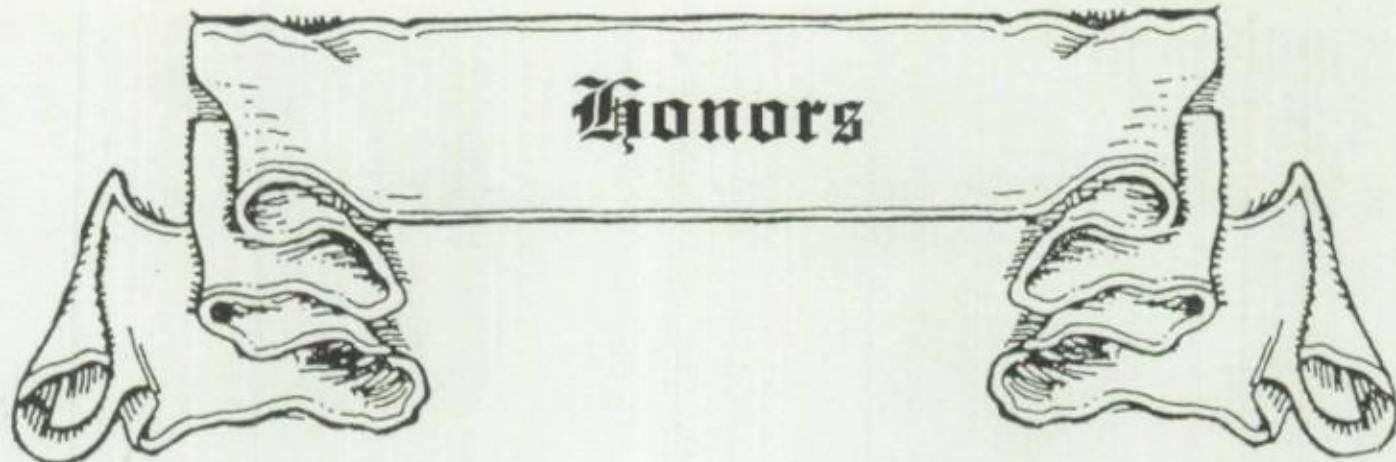

May God direct your footsteps
Down the path of happiness
And crown each fine endeavor
With a well-deserved success
May God enable you to use
Your talents and your skill
To make the world a better place
According to His will.

The 1981-82 Thunderin' Antelopes had an exciting year, ending at the Regional Tournament where they were edged by the eventual state champions.

Some of the highlights of the season included beating Dimmitt in Dimmitt, winning the district playoff with Tula, and defeating a tall team from Slaton in the bi-district game.

The team showed steady improvement throughout the year due to a tough non-district schedule and to a strong unified spirit.

If we could have traded one big non-conference victory for one defeat at the Regional Tournament, it would have meant a return trip to the Superdrum.

To have coached this caliber of team was a great privilege.

Carl Irlbeck

Mrs. Irene Walker was honored with a reception in recognition of her retirement after 23 years with Abernathy Schools.

Mrs. Marie Adkisson received a standing ovation at the High School Honors Assembly; she received a certificate and a hug from Mr. LeMoine. She is leaving Abernathy Schools after 16 years as secretary in the principal's office.

Dr. Webb Resigns To Become Service Center Director

December 3, in a called meeting, Mr. Richard Howard, school board president, released information that Dr. Delwin Webb, superintendent of Abernathy Schools, had resigned his office.

Dr. Webb became Executive Director of the Education Service Center, Region XII.

Mr. Howard said, "His dedication, loyalty, professional attitude, and desire to improve our school has been a credit, not only to himself but the entire teaching profession."

Although many improvements to the local school facilities have been accomplished during his nineteen years of service to the Abernathy Schools, Dr. Webb stated that he has more pride in what had been accomplished in staff improvement and curriculum than in the buildings.

Dr. Webb said that although he was stepping aside as superintendent, he was not leaving the education profession. Dr. Webb replaced Dr. O. R. Douglas who, after serving as Executive Director of the Education Center since 1967, retired.

Designed to provide services more economically and more effectively than can be provided by each school district, the Service Center acts as an intermediate agency between public schools and the Texas Education Agency.

Dr. Webb, who earned three degrees at Texas Tech University, served as a teacher and an administrator in the Brownfield and Littlefield schools and who has also taught at Tech, served nineteen years as superintendent of the Abernathy Schools.

Dr. Webb and wife, Barbara, a teacher in the Abernathy Schools, have two children; Rhonda and Melissa (Missy).

Board members and school personnel attended a reception honoring Dr. Webb in January. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith and Mr. Luther Cassler look at one of the yearbooks chronicling Dr. Webb's 19-year career here.
